The Faces of Research

Walter Rei

Professor in the Department of Analytics, Operations and Information Technology

2019-2021 Research Ambassador

A Canada Research Chair in Stochastic Optimization of Transport and Logistics Systems, his work focuses on the reduction of their cost and ecological footprint.

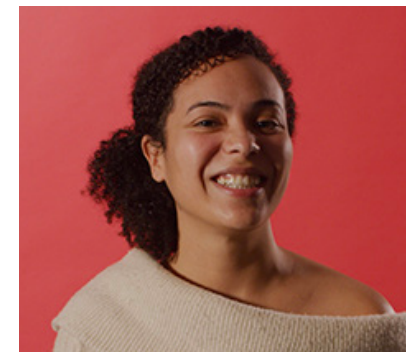

Amélie Guèvremont

Professor at ESG UQAM in the Marketing Department

Emerging Faculty Award: 2021 Winner

She is interested in consumer behaviour and the relationship consumers have with brands. She is trying to understand her real motivations namely through qualitative research methodologies that investigate identity building (e.g., netnography).

Mélissa Coissard
